NEWBERRY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

"Reaching People & Sharing God's Infinite Love"

May 27, 2018

Welcome!

Deuteronomy is a warning to the people to fulfill God's law.

While we follow Paul's words, "forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead", there are times when we must remember the past.

It is not good to live in the past, but we must learn from it so we don't repeat it.

This is why Moses called the people. They stood on the shores of the river Jordan – a river that separated them from the land God has promised them – and told them how God had freed the Israelite people, how they were rebellious and stubborn, and how they died in the desert.

How God's punishment had been that a journey that should have lasted only a week and a half turned into 40 years.

Deuteronomy is a lesson for a new generation, not just so they hear God's law but so they understand the consequences of rebellion and the blessings of obedience.

There are 4 reasons why we should remember the past

1. To see how far we've come.
2. To remember God's goodness.
3. To recognize God's grace.
4. To remember God's discipline.

While we read Deuteronomy, we should remember those things that God has spoken to us and done for us personally, so we don't forget how far we've come; so we don't forget his goodness and grace...and yes, even His discipline.

Opening Prayer

^Opening Hymn “Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee” No. 89

^Call to Worship (In Unison)

We gather this day in celebration of God and remembering with sadness those we have loved and lost. Let us not glorify the conflicts and violence that tear our loved ones from us. Let us, rather, give glory to God, who calls us to use our freedom peaceably. Our God is a God of all nations and peoples. May our worship of God unite rather than divide.

| 1, Above all powers
Above all nature
And all created things
Above all wisdom
And all the ways of man
You were here
Before the world began | 3. Crucified
Laid behind a stone
You lived to die
Rejected and alone
Like a rose
Trampled on the ground
You took the fall
And thought of me
Above all | |
| 2. Above all kingdoms
Above all wonders
The world has ever known
Above all wealth
And treasures of the earth
There's no way to measure
What You're worth | | |

Prayers of the People (In Unison)

ALL: O Lord, we pray for your church. That we, who are blessed by you, may be a blessing to others. That we, who are loved by you, may love as you love. That we, who are empowered by you, may encourage others. That we, who are called by you, may bring others to you. That we, who are created by you, may build a church that will stand as a symbol of your presence in our midst. O Lord, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, hear our prayer. Amen.
